Rep. Labriola Achieves Perfect Voting, Attendance Record

Hartford-For the third consecutive year, State Representative David Labriola, R-131st, achieved a 100 percent voting record in the State Legislature, according to records compiled by the clerk of the House of Representatives.

According to a statistical summary recently released by the General Assembly's House Clerks Office, Rep Labriola is one of only 10 House lawmakers to record a 100 percent voting and attendance record during the 2003-2005 legislative sessions. There are 151 members in the state House of Representatives and more than 400 votes were cast in 2005.

"The people of my district deserve a legislator who consistently advocates on their behalf," said Rep. Labriola. "My attendance record reflects my passion for the job of state representative."

Labriola's 100 percent attendance and voting record also parallels his commitment to his committee work. He maintains an excellent attendance record as Ranking Member (House Republican Leader) of the Legislature's Education Committee and as a member of the Judiciary Committee and Regulations Review Committee. He was elected to his second term in the General Assembly on November 2, 2004.
